

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mrs. Diana Fish, aged 91, died at her home in Benson recently.

F. B. Noble, for 14 years janitor of the Hyde Park high school, has resigned.

L. F. Nichols fell on the ice in Brandon last week and fractured several ribs.

The library at Pittsford is to be closed two afternoons a week to conserve fuel.

The first carload of chestnut coal to be delivered in Vergennes this winter came there last week.

The North Congregational church of St. Johnsbury has hung out a service flag with 33 stars.

In the death of George W. Shores, the last of the Civil war veterans was taken from Granby.

R. F. D. Carrier W. G. Curtis, on a route of 14.1 miles, in Jeffersonville, has sold $76 worth of war savings certificates and thrift stamps.

Rev. F. C. Taylor, a former pastor at Hyde Park, has returned to Vermont after several years' absence and has taken a pastorate at Londonderry.

Five members of the family of John A. Bassett of Rutland were very ill and narrowly escaped asphyxiation Tuesday morning when gas escaped from their coal stove.

Miss Bernice H. Ballard, a teacher for some years in the schools of Burlington, died at the Mary Fletcher hospital Wednesday after a severe operation for appendicitis.

Wayne, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell of Morrisville, has just completed a knitted muffler, 42 inches long and 10 inches wide for the Red Cross.

Two Newport boys, aged 12 and 14 years, were taken off the train at St. Johnsbury Wednesday at their parents' request. They had $20 between them and had set out for Boston.

Rev. Duncan G. Porteous, a former pastor of the Methodist church at East Burke, and since then at Lancaster, N. H., has resigned the latter pastorate and will take up Y. M. C. A. army work.

After a five years' shutdown, work has been resumed cutting soapstone in the Davis quarry at Chester. The stone will be shipped to the Union Soapstone company in Boston, to be used in their plant.

C. H. Cambridge, principal of the Shelburne high school, has resigned to accept a similar position at Chester. Miss Bertha M. Field, four years a teacher in the Burlington high school, is his successor.

For the second time in ten years the Rutland railroad has declared dividends. On Jan. 23, two per cent dividend will be paid on the preferred stock. In 1917 a two per cent dividend was paid, the first since 1907.

Dr. Royal Hatch, a native of Stratford, and a graduate of St. Johnsbury academy, died recently at his home in Wellesley, Mass., having graduated from Dartmouth college in 1900 and from the Harvard medical school in 1904.

Rev. George C. Boorn, who resigned last June as pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church in Rutland, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Universalist church in Woodford, Me., and will also have charge of All Souls' church in Portland.

At Rev. V. M. Hardy's in Morrisville Sunday, Dec. 30, at 12:30 p. m., the thermometer standing in his south piazza, shielded by a glass window, registered 70 degrees above zero, while at the north side of the house the thermometer there at the same time registered 14 below zero.

Miss Helen Stockwell of Lyndon has just discovered a sister, unknown to her before. Mrs. Marion Wright of Waterbury. Miss Stockwell was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Stockwell when she was seven years old and did not know she had a living sister until inquiries by Mrs. Wright brought them together.

The boiler of the furnace in the church at Dorset froze during the recent cold spell and the damage was so great it will be some time before repairs can be completed. In the same town Quincy Jones froze his hands quite badly. He was driving and when his horse started suddenly he was unable to put on his gloves for a few minutes, during which time his hands froze.

A Mendon woman beyond middle age, hearing from her son, an enlisted man at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C., that he was suffering from the cold for lack of a sweater, walked the four miles to Rutland, not wearing a team, purchased the yarn and then walked back to her home. She had no knitting needles and her husband whittled some for her out of wood. The sweater grew up until late one night when the yarn gave out, with the garment not quite completed. The next morning her husband walked to Rutland and back for the yarn to finish it and remarked that he got the sweater whittled off on the midnight mail, which would cause one or the other of the couple to again make the eight-mile walk.

May Postpone Bankers' Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Vermont State Bankers' association, which was to have been held in Burlington Jan. 18, will probably be postponed until Feb. 22, the regular meeting date, owing to the inability of Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City bank of New York and chairman of the national war savings committee, who was to have been one of the principal speakers, to be present.

According to a telegram received by C. P. Smith of the Burlington Savings bank, Mr. Vanderlip has been forced to cancel all speaking engagements for the time being because of illness.
It was thought that the meeting would be held in spite of the fact that Mr. Vanderlip was not to be present, but word from A. H. Chandler of Bellows Falls, president of the bankers' association, is to the effect that in the event Mr. Vanderlip was unable to be present in Burlington on Jan. 18, the meeting would be postponed until Feb. 22. This date is a much better one for the bankers, for, being a holiday, it will enable more of them to be present at the annual convention.

BURLINGTON CON. CERN GIVES $500 TO K. OF C. FUND

Proposed Campaign to Raise $50,000 in Vermont Is Showing Signs of Quickening Life.

Burlington, Jan. 11.—Telephone 50,000 Burlington. This is the number given the telephone at the headquarters of the Knights of Columbus war camp fund in this city. It corresponds to the number of dollars to be raised in the campaign to be conducted in this state from Sunday, Jan. 20, to Wednesday, Jan. 30. Vermonters desiring to contribute to this worthy enterprise and not caring to wait to be approached by a solicitor can call telephone 50,000, Burlington, and make known their intentions. It is expected that telephone 50,000 will be kept busy from all sections of the state.

An interesting and gratifying experience took place at headquarters yesterday. A well-known and prominent resident of Burlington connected with one of the most important Queen city business institutions called and stated to State Chairman Wright that his concern wished to make a contribution of $500. He said that he and his people realized that the work being done by the Knights of Columbus at its recreation building at the army cantonments of the country was most beneficial and had decided to give $500, and this after they had fully come to a realization that the country's most important business now is to win the war and to do this it is quite essential to look after the moral as well as the physical man. In his opinion it is good business judgment to contribute generously to the Knights of Columbus and other organizations that are doing such good work for the welfare of the American soldiers at home and overseas, and that every business should be directed by this same spirit.

The voluntary contributor of this liberal sum will not at this time permit his name or that of his firm to be given to the public. When asked if the name of his concern could not be made known in the connection with its gift to the K. of C., he said that they preferred not to be known at present, but that the dollars would do the same good as if publicity of the giver was granted.

Throughout the state interest is growing in the K. of C. war camp fund campaign and every indication points to an energetic start being made on the opening day of the "days" drive to secure in Vermont $50,000.
One feature of the national campaign to raise $3,000,000 that has aroused much interest is the gift of $100,000 made by the Rockefeller foundation. This is the largest single contribution that has come to the K. of C. war camp fund, and it has had a stimulating effect upon all sections of the country. The Rockefeller foundation does not make inquiries as to the source of the money, but it is given after careful investigation that it is given at the army camps of the country by the K. of C. of that state.

Vermont has gone "over the top" in all the contributing campaigns conducted in the state and the anticipation among all directly interested in the present movement is that the Green Mountain state will live up to the honorable record already established.

GOOD PROGRAM

Being Arranged for the Winoski Valley Teachers' Meeting at Montpelier.

The annual convention of the Winoski Valley Teachers' association will be held in Montpelier on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 1 and 2. The polo situation kept the teachers in this district from attending the state teachers' convention in St. Albans in the fall; consequently, the executive committee, with the aid and cooperation of the state department of education and the public safety committee, has spared neither effort nor expense to make this convention especially good for a district conference.

The program is not yet definitely arranged, but it is expected when finally arranged to stand as follows:
Speakers for Friday morning: His excellency, Governor Horace F. Graham; Fred A. Howland, Vermont chairman of the Red Cross; State Food Administrator H. J. M. Jones; Milo B. Higgins, commissioner of education; Fraser Metzger, head of food conservation campaign; Miss Mabel Carney of teachers' college, Columbia university.

Friday afternoon—The entire afternoon will be devoted to conferences, at some of which Principal Bessie Bacon Goodrich and Miss Mabel Morse of Johnson Normal school are expected to appear; also Clyde M. Hill, state supervisor of junior high schools.

Friday evening—This meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Montpelier city hall and the public will be cordially welcomed. The Hon. George Adams of the British war office is definitely engaged and it is expected that Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, head of the department of history and politics at Harvard university, will also be present.
Speakers for Saturday morning: Angelo Patis, author of "The Schoolmaster in a Great City"; and principal of public school 45, New York City; Dean Craven Laycock, dean of Dartmouth college.

Fresh-Cut Meat and Bone as an Egg Producer

Fresh-cut meat and bone has been called the ideal food for laying hens because it contains in a highly concentrated but easily assimilated form all the materials which are contained in the egg. If your hens are not laying, you had better send $3.00 to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., for a 200-pound barrel of this food. At this price he will pay the freight to your railroad station. When writing him, mention this paper.—Adv.

Are You Fully Insured?

Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper, which is now printed once a month instead of twice, says in the January issue:

"For several years we have urged you to carry insurance on your buildings and live stock and to make all reasonable preparations to fight fires.

"The story of the million-dollar stockyards fire in Kansas City last fall carries a lesson which no one can afford to overlook.

"Following a rather disastrous fire at the same yards three years ago, the Kansas City Live Stock exchange voted to carry a blanket policy on all live stock received. A large fire-insurance company took the risk at 10 cents a carload. Unless otherwise instructed by the shipper, this small amount was deducted from the returns on each car, and turned over to the insurance company.

"The company, it is stated, agreed to pay full value for all animals lost, up to $150 per head. The insurance continues as long as the cattle are in the yards. The small charge was such as to be felt by nobody, but it meant a million to the men whose stock was in the big fire. It is estimated that 11,500 cattle and 2,500 hogs were burned.

"Could there be a more striking example of the value of insurance?"

$150,000 Was Nothing to Eve!

In "The Golden Block," the two-part serial running in the January Woman's Home Companion, this passage occurs:
